June Newsletter 2023

This month at school

Welcome to Blue Room! This month's theme is When I Grow Up!

For the first week of June, the letter of the week will be Jj. We will be doing all things Father's Day, camping, and fishing. For literacy, we will be identifying the letters that spell Daddy. For math, we will be identifying different animal tracks and their sounds. For science, we will be going ice fishing using string and salt to predict what happens. For art, we will be making a campfire using foil and paint to create a fire.

For the second week of June, the letter of the week will be Kk. We will be learning all about occupations and community helpers. For art, we will be painting with a toothbrush on a tooth cut out, while learning all about the dentist. For literacy, we will be tracing letters using a ziplock full of shaving cream. For science, we will be putting out fires using a spray bottle to learn all about firemen. For math, we will be pasting stamps to the correct number on the envelopes to learn all about the mailman.

For the third week of June, the letter of the week will be Ll. We will be learning everything about construction. For art, we will be making construction hats using orange and yellow paint. For science, we will be identifying the different types of construction workers and discussing what they do. For literacy, we will be tracing the letter of the week in sand and rocks.

For the fourth week of June, the letter of the week will be Mm. We will be learning all about construction. For art, we will be making traffic signal and learning what each color means. For literacy, we will be creating a license plate with the letters of our names. For science, we will be creating different ramps and predicting what car will go down the fastest. For math, we will be driving our cars on different shape roads and identifying the shape.
